

Crick, Northampton NN6 7XS
01788 823811
sales@access-irrigation.co.uk
www.access-irrigation.co.uk

Commercial Hanging Basket Systems

Hanging baskets require frequent watering in a production situation and this can be very labour intensive. A fully automated system will not only save on labour costs but produce a fuller basket.

In addition, if required, fertiliser can easily be added to the system to boost plant growth.

- 20mm black poly pipe
- Pressure compensated drippers for even watering
- Discreet barbed fittings
- Complete range of controllers and sensors available